EDITORIALS.

Be men.

Fear nobody but God.

The Russian people remind us of another race that we know. They pull together for a while, then grow jealous of their leaders and begin to destroy each other.

The patriotic white people in these trying times are stirring up strife in domestic relations throughout the country, while the patriotic Colored people are going on with their work and being lynched.

Watch next issue of Sun for a complete list of all business men who have contributed to the Negro Business League Street Fair and Carnival.

G. A. PAGE, President.

One of the best edited newspapers is the Wisconsin Weekly Blade, edited by that splendid scholar and logician, J. Anthony Josey. What it lacks in size it makes up in pungent, stirring and courageous editorials.

Of course there will be a way to keep the Negro soldiery back in the honors of this war. There are always such hooks and crooks, you know. And there are people in authority who will resort to these ways in due time. Keep your eye on Des Moines.

Have you noticed that all the anti-draft advocates, all the slackers, all the agitators of commercial discontent, all the war grafters, all the peddlers of sedition are of the proud Anglo-Saxon blood? Will the future historian take note of this fact? Will the present race bigot admit it now?

Says Uncle Zeke, "Ef Mistah Hoover deela's any restrictions on meat it will be mighty ha'd on de babecue stand bodadess. It sho will." And U. Z. is right. The coming winter with its high prices and food scarcity is going to be "ha'd" on all who fail to look a day in advance and to think less of the day at hand.

Two pioneer and prominent citizens of Denver, Colo., passed away last week in the persons of Father F. T. Bruce and Mr. L. C. Connell. Both were Past Grand Masters of Masons and for many years officials of Shorter A. M. E. church. The Sun extends its sympathy both to the relatives and the members of the fraternity in our sister jurisdiction.

Dubinsky Brothers will make their triumphant return to Kansas City with their famous stock company after an absence of over one year. They will begin a permanent season at the Grand with a matinee Sunday, September 23, with that wonderful comedy drama by Willard Mack, entitled "Kick In."

Popular matinees will be given Sunday, Thursday and Saturday with a thousand seats at ten cents each, while the night prices are ten and twenty cents. Seat reservations may be made for the entire season, a large section of the best seats that have ever been offered to the Colored people of Kansas City are to be found at the Grand and the number of the new telephones just installed is Main 5859 on both phones.

The Kanaka, as the native Hawaiian is called, is fast dying out. It is said that when Captain John Cook of H. M. S. Navy discovered these islands in 1778, the islands had a population of 400,000 but in a little over one century there remain but 26,000 according to the census of 1910.

Various causes have been attributed to this unprecedented disappearance of a whole race. They have for one thing intermarried with other races, in fact have been absorbed by the other races of the islands. The interest in these natives of our island possessions have been kept before us almost continually by their native music which has taken us by storm.

The latest play dealing with Hawaii is "A Daughter of the Sun," a story of an Hawaiian Butterfly, written by Lorin J. Howard and Ralph T. Kettering, and produced by Rowland and Howard. Nothing in the dramatic line since "A Bird of Paradise" has created such a furore. The atmosphere of these enchanted isles is maintained by a wonderful scenic equipment and also a band of native Hawaiian musicians, who furnish the music for the play.

"A Daughter of the Sun" will be seen at the Garden Theater for one week and a matinee.

THEY SAY

—That it never rains but it pours.

—That after the "good time" usually comes the "hereafter."

—That the most beautiful angel and the wickedest devil in the world is woman.

—That a woman who fancies she has been snubbed by a man usually claims to hate all mankind.

—That jealousy in the Negro race seems more pronounced than among any other people. Why?

—That the whetting of knives have already begun for the Spring Campaign and it's five months away. Well, go to it boys!

—That right blessed is the man or woman who have their coal in the bin and their flour in the cupboard for winter.

—That the corner stone laying of the Y. M. C. A. at St. Louis was the greatest demonstration ever witnessed on the part of Colored people in that city.

—That the party who is always sending communications to the press and do not sign their names are generally unreliable, irresponsible and decidedly cowardly. Does this hit you?

HOME BAKERY MOVES!

Comptons, Old Line Restaurant and Bakers, Open Bake Shop on 18th Street Near Woodland.

NOW OPEN FOR BUSINESS.

Meeting the swiftly growing condition on 18th street, between Woodland and Highland avenues, a bake shop has been established in that block by the Comptons, noted for many years as bakers of snacking, delectable foods. The Compton Bread is superior to the common loaf—their doughnuts are extraordinary—their cakes are always successful, while Mrs. Compton's famous sweet potato pies have eclipsed all competitors for thirty years in this city. A full line of bakery goods are now on hand. A special line of cakes and cookies for school children in season, while a Delicatessen menu will tempt all. Milk will be sold and in the course of time a small line of groceries added. Bakery goods will still be sold at the Delmonico Cafe but an independent bakery will be at 1717 E. 18th.

The St. Louis Branch of the N. A. A. C. P. on whom (because of close proximity) has devolved the labor of giving relief, prosecuting claims for losses and detecting and prosecuting the criminals in the matter of the barbarous rioting and massacres at East St. Louis, Ill., in the first week of July, 1917, here makes a general appeal for funds that are necessary to the accomplishment of its work.

The future safety of the Colored people throughout the United States depends upon the nation being taught that arrest, trial, conviction and punishment shall be the portion of those who assault persons because they are Colored as surely as such assault is made.

Colored people alone can give this lesson. We are giving it now and it shall be given most thoroughly; but we must have the help we are here asking for.

To this date $1,067.00 has been contributed for this purpose and $648.00 has been expended. Attorneys, detectives, court fees, and other expense create need for a total of $5,000.00.

We publish fortnightly, in available newspapers, reports of all money received and all expenditures and we will furnish interested persons with copies of these reports on request.

We earnestly ask prompt, general response to this appeal and we pledge exhaustive effort for redress and correction.

Send all contributions by check, registered letter or money order to William H. Huffman, Treasurer, Pythian Temple, 3137 Pine Street, St. Louis, Mo.

Very truly yours for the peace and security of law-observing American citizenship,
